

STAGING

THE MIRACLE WORKER
Because of the size of our school stage, flexible staging and stylistic sets were necessary. For instance, the action that takes place on the platform, represents action inside the house; and the ladder in Act I, Scene 7, symbolizes the stairway.

COMMITTEES

PROPS: Dave Haefeli, Fred Ubaldo and Mona Kincaid

PUBLICITY: Diane Marshall and Randy Waldrip

SOUND: Terry Day

LIGHTS: Larry Steenson

SPECIAL THANKS TO:

DAVE McELROY who showed enough interest to come and help us along.

DAVE BARRON for building our platforms (with the help of Mr. Stauffer) and also for the good advice he was able to offer GEORGE MITCHELL for all the help he gave.

The cast and crew would like to give their sincere thanks to Mrs. Mallett for all the time and effort she gave to make the play what it is.
